

FIRE SAFETY TIPS FOR THE HOME.

Did you know.? - In a fire, heat at the floor level is 90 degrees, at head height temperature is 600 degrees, at ceiling height the temperature is 800 degrees. Heat at over 150 degrees will knock you unconscious and kill you.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - Don't leave matches and lighters lying around for the little hands to find.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - If you sleep with your bedroom door closed - Install a smoke detector in the bedroom.

REMEMBER. - A smoke detector doesn't work is like having NO Smoke Detector at all.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - Practice a fire escape plan with your entire family - Remember to stay low and crawl to safety.

Did you know.? A fire burning in a house for 1 minute grows to 3 times its original size. In 4 minutes it grows to 11 times its size, and 6 minutes it reaches 50 times its original size!

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - Test your smoke detectors once a month, record the date and replace dead batteries.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. If you have a question on fire safety, visit your local fire department. They will be happy to discuss fire safety with you.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. Keep spare batteries on hand. Warn everyone in your household to leave working batteries in smoke detectors - Resist the temptation to borrow them for other purposes.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - Get yourself and your family out and then call for help.

Did you know.? - Although fire companies have done a tremendous job getting the smoke detectors installed in homes across the country, it is estimated that as many as half don't work because the batteries are dead or missing.

Did you know.? - Most people die in the FIRST 5 MINUTES OF A FIRE!

Did you know.? - Fire officials say that 90% of the people they find in a fire look like they're asleep, the only difference is their faces are dirty from the soot because they died from the smoke and gasses.

Did you know.? - The presence and proper maintenance of smoke detectors increase your chances of surviving a fire by 50%.

Don't gamble with your life or the lives of your family. - Install smoke detectors on every level of your home.

Did you know.? - When you're asleep you can't smell smoke - If anything, smoke will put you into a deeper sleep.